Just be sure to spell out “double you” and make sure that a “w” looks like two “v’s.” You know how the PUBLIC is!! ☺

It's okay to use that email on the site as long as everyone in OCPI and whoever else needs to know is aware the response to all the emails is going to be the same blanket statement.

Love the new URL! ☺

LOL—it's all a big mystery! ☺

The brand new, expanded website will list r8eisc@epa.gov as a contact email address, unless you think that we should set up a separate email address like goldkingmine@epa.gov or something like that.

The new URL will be MUCH better!! Are you ready? ☺ As of Tuesday morning, it will be:

www.epa.gov/goldkingmine

Sweet!!
